HEAR IT TIZZ

Political winds are now beginning to blow in earnest. When the local party groups start operations it is a sure sign that the electioneering is due forthwith.

The Republicans are planning a "Preparedness Dinner" at $100 per plate, February 14. Senator Nixon is due to speak, and the money gathered will be used in the local campaign.

It is softly noted by some GOP stalwarts that they believe the $100 tariff is too high. The "little guys" who do the real work in a campaign would also like to hear Nixon, they say.

On the Democratic side, the state central committee meets this weekend in San Francisco to discuss the forthcoming fight to oust Senator Knowland.

Sunday, January 20, the central committees of the 13th Congressional District will meet in Santa Barbara to choose an opponent for Incumbent Bramblett. Two Peninsula men are in that race, Mel Huden, MPC professor and Seaside leader, and Angelo Di Girolamo, operator of Angelo's on Fishermen's Wharf.

Now is a good time for voters to check their registration status. If they want to vote in the primary June 3, they will have to be registered by April 10.

The Cavanaugh Hat Company of New York is either very wide awake or somewhat inefficient. Corum Jackson just received a brochure urging him to give Cavanaugh Hat gift certificates for Christmas. It didn't say which Christmas. Anyway, everyone knows there's nothing like getting that tiresome Christmas shopping done early.

The Carmel Lions witnessed quite a show at their Mission Ranch meeting Tuesday night put on by Fort Ord soldiers. They called back the performers time and again, and the GIs as well as the Lions enjoyed themselves immensely.

Speaking of clubs, Karl Veet, instructor at the Presidio, gave the Rotary Club quite an insight into how a Communist party can take over a democracy. He was in Czechoslovakia in 1948 when the Reds grabbed complete control in a single night, although they had only 35 per cent of the people behind them.

Gladys Johnston says the California Real Estate Association is leading the fight against public housing in a vigorous manner. She just returned from a meeting of the group in Los Angeles where the project in that city was denounced by the realtors.

While there she visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Markham Johnston.

Louis Poulos, former owner of Kip's, was back in town this week from San Francisco on business.

The street and cafe conversation this week seems to be centering around the Big Tournament. Especially interesting to most of the townsfolk is the regular pre-tourney gathering at the Country Club which was held last night.

The Road is finished--but the memory lingers on in the minds of Carmel Valley residents... Completion of the Carmel Valley Road was announced by county officials as of 4 p.m. Thursday, with the county accepting the road for maintenance from the contractor, Granite Construction Company, of Seaside..... Surprising, but few Valley people knew of the portentous event when it happened, although since April they had looked forward to C-day as the end of a tremendously jolting and irritating experience..... A few resorts had planned parties for the event, but forgot along with everyone else.

COUNCIL TAKES NO ACTION ON REQUEST FOR WATER STUDY

The question of fluoridation of water in Carmel was tabled by the city council Wednesday night. The council decided it has no authority either to approve or disapprove of the proposal.

The meeting was marked by numerous opinions given from the floor both pro and con. Some of the information given was in direct conflict with statements made by others in the audience.

A study of the matter has been made by the council since they rejected the proposal at the December meeting. The Business Association requested the council to form a committee for further study of the matter.

However, last night the council passed a resolution which stated it felt that further study would be pointless. Councilman Donald Craig said he felt the group was not in a position to take a stand on a question on which medical and dental experts seem to be divided.

Councilman John Chitwood said he believed the matter should be settled by a vote, at least county-wide. He noted that the state legislature did not pass the law which would absolve city councils from responsibility in case of injury due to fluoridation of water, thus making the council personally liable to suit.

CARMEL HIGH OFFICERS ELECTED AFTER DEADLOCK

After a deadlock, the Carmel High School student body named its seven officers yesterday. Skipper Lloyd, who had been in a non-majority tie with Susan McCloud and Kurt von Meier, triumphed for the presidency. Other officers elected were Lanny Doolittle, vice-president; Paula Roloff, secretary; Kathleen Whittaker, commissioner for social affairs; Joni Mackenzie, commissioner of public affairs; Allene Petty, commissioner of girls' athletics, and Myron Branson, commissioner of boys' athletics.

These seven will assume their duties for the new semester beginning January 21.

HAMMOND ORGAN SOCIETY

The Monterey County Hammond Organ Society held an intra-society concert this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Landaker in Pacific Grove.

Eleventh Crosby Tournament Under Way

Half pro, half amateur, the 172 golfers teed off today at exclusive Cypress Point Club. Tomorrow they move to the Country Club. The third and final 18 holes of the 54 hole event are played Sunday at Pebble Beach.

Twenty thousand people witnessed the event last January, the greatest gallery in 33 years of tournament golf on the Monterey Peninsula, including the National Amateur, and probably the biggest gallery in the history of California golf.

Byron Nelson, who came out of retirement to win the pro money last January, told Bing the tourney was "one of the most wonderful in the world." Grantland Rice called it "the greatest golf tournament being played in the world today."

Gallery fee is $2 Friday, $2.50 Saturday, and $3 Sunday, or a flat $5 for a season ticket, including admission to Del Monte Forest.

PENINSULA BOY SCOUTS PLAN EXPOSITION AT COUNTY FAIR GROUNDS

As part of national observance of Boy Scout Week, more than 1100 active Cub and Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts on the Monterey Peninsula will stage a big cooperative Scout-O-Rama at Monterey at Monterey County Fairgrounds February 8 and 9.

In a series of three shows the Scout-O-Rama, in the Fair grounds Exhibition Hall, will feature the varied and interesting work and hobbies of the 15 Cub Packs, 18 Scout Troops and four Explorer Units, comprising roughly half of all boys of eligible age in Marina, Fort Ord, Seaside, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel and Carmel Valley, Muir said.

Each Cub Pack or Scout Troop is sponsored by a church, fraternal, service club, veterans or other organization. Unit leaders all serve on a strictly volunteer basis.

Boys 8 through 11 are eligible for Cub Packs, 11 through 13 for Scout Troops and young men of 14 or older for Explorer Units. Of the latter, three types will be featured among many exhibits and demonstrations of Scouting in action: Sea Ships, Air Squadrons and Explorer Posts.

Scout-O-Rama admission price will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children under 12. Tickets are available through any Scout of the Scout Trading Posts at Holman's Department Store or Charmak and Chandler; at Del Monte-Fremont branch, Bank of America in Seaside, and at the Carmel Drug Store. Profits from the big show-exhibition will be available prorata to all units to assist any Scout from an under-privileged family, and for purchase of camping and handicraft equipment and uniforms.

For centuries it has been mandatory in Great Britain that all manufactured silver be marked with "Hall Marks" guaranteeing that the piece is "sterling" or better. The marks also give the town and date where marked and the initials or mark of the maker.

"Sheffield Plate" does not bear "Hall Marks."

We will be pleased to read for you the "Hall Marks" on any old silver you may possess.

WHAT'S WHAT ABOUT SELF EMPLOYMENT LAW

While ignorance of the law is not an excuse, it does seem, at times, to be unavoidable. This week Carmel's self-employed have been asking one another, and us, what the new tax law is all about.

Well... first of all it pertains to self-employed persons, with these exceptions: physicians, lawyers, dentists, osteopaths, veterinarians, chiropractors, naturopaths, optometrists, Christian Science practitioners, architects, certified public accountants, registered or licensed accountants, funeral directors or professional engineers.

Now then... if you are not one of these, and are self-employed, you owe the tax, the official name of which is the "Self-Employment Tax (for Old Age and Survivor Insurance)." That is... you owe it if your income is not from real estate rentals, interest and dividends, or property gains.

Those who are left are definitely included. They must obtain a Schedule C, for filing together with their income tax return. This new tax is paid upon the previous year's income, regardless of whether the accompanying Income tax form is an estimated return, or a regular form covering income already earned.

This tax applies to all ages (there is no limit) to anyone who earns more than $50 per month.

On a happier note, anyone who has paid social security taxes for six quarters, (18 months), is eligible to receive benefits at the age of 65, provided his income does not exceed $50 per month. After 75 years, anyone who has paid for 18 months will cash in, even though he's a millionaire.

The amount of the tax is 2 1/4% on the amount of income subject to tax. Just how one figures that out is between the taxpayer, his conscience, and his income tax form.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue, in the basement of the Post Office in Monterey, will answer questions, either face to face, or over the phone on line 5-4616.

CARMEL BIKE LICENSES FOR 1952 ARE NOW DUE

CARMEL FOUNDATION DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY

The neglect of older people in modern society has been the topic of many a discussion, cracker-barrel and rostrum. Nothing much ever seemed to come of them, other than a gentle tsking, and a regretful nod of the head...until now, when a group of Carmel people have undertaken "An Adventure in Neighborliness."

The Carmel Foundation, incorporated in April, of last year, proposed a series of services and comforts for people over 65, who live in and about Carmel. They envisioned a well-organized foundation which would provide nursing, housekeeping, cooking, shopping, marketing, transportation, and many other helps to older people who were unable to do these things for themselves. The idea was to bring to older people, living alone or with families who could not give them much time, the help that would be theirs if there were more time for family relations than there seems to be currently.

Now the foundation is sending out around 800 brochures, seeking support for their program. Three types of memberships are available... Director Members (The Board of Directors), Life Members (those who contribute $500 or more), and Associated Friend cards for those contributing from $1 up.

Persons aided by the Foundation will pay, or not pay, for the help offered, according to the discretion of the Director. Volunteer help will be included, and a legal service provided.

Officers of the foundation are: Honorary President, Mrs. Sidney A. Trevett; President, Dr. L. A. Williams; Vice-president, Mrs. Charles A. Fuller; Treasurer, Miss Hope Hasty; Secretary, Mrs. Laurence Barretto.

Directors are: Capt. Archer Allen, Dr. Remsen Bird, Miss Jane Burritt, Dr. Helen Field; Mrs. P. H. Hudgins, Mr. M. C. Jenkins, Mr. Harold Mack, Mrs. Joseph Stilwell, Dr. L. A. Williams, Mrs. Charles A. Fuller, Mr. Ralph Castagna, Mrs. William Dekker, Mrs. Horace Dromody, Mr. Sidney A. Trevett, The Rev. A. B. SANITARY BOARD NAMES COMMITTEE TO STUDY CUT IN OPERATING COST

A study is under way which may cut the operational costs of the Carmel Sanitary District. The directors this week appointed a committee to study expenses with the aim of co-ordinating operations and cutting the steadily-mounting costs.

Chairman L. O. Kellogg and Secretary William H. Satchell will make the study. The regular monthly cost of operating the district is now about $3,000. Kellogg said he hopes this figure can be kept unchanged or possibly reduced.

The board set aside an annexation petition submitted by the Carmel Properties Company for further study. The company wants its property across Rio road, south of Hatton Fields, to be included in the district. The directors tabled the petition until they can discuss the proposal with the district's engineer.

At present the company is putting apartment buildings up in the area which used to be artichoke land. About 15 acres are involved.

SUNSET AUDITORIUM

Two performances of "The Hasty Heart" will be played at Sunset Auditorium this weekend under the auspices of Actors' Theatre. This moving and gripping drama, filled with explosive laughter and heart-twisting emotions, again brings the same cast of last November 30 with the exception of The Colonel who will this time be portrayed by Nick LeFeuvre.

Others are: Ric Masten as The Scot, Peg Miner as The Nurse, Allen Greif as Yank, Nick Pappas as Tommy, Willard Branson as Blossom, Jim Hare as Kiwi, Murray Wight as Digger and Gene Eplett as The Orderly.

Wes Flehardt's sets, Dolph Tewes' stage management, and Charles Thomas' direction bring this exciting play to Carmel for all those persons who were unable to attend the show last Fall.

WHARF THEATER PRESENTS
"THE CHILDREN'S HOUR"

"The Children's Hour," a frank and powerful drama by Lillian Hellman, will open the 1952 season at the Wharf Theatre tonight at 8:30. The controversial play concerning a malicious scandal will play eight performances, Friday and Saturday nights for the next four weeks.

The Wharf management has stressed that despite the innocent title taken from Longfellow, "The Children's Hour" is for adult playgoers only and definitely not for children. Although the drama is recognized critically as one of the great plays of modern theatre, production of it is rare in America. Community theatre and college censorship has practically ruled it off the amateur stage. It is being produced at the Wharf in answer to requests for more adult and challenging plays in the style of "The Respectful Prostitute" and "Come Back, Little Sheba."

The cast of "The Children's Hour" is almost a list of Wharf stars of the past season. Ruth Warshawsky, leading lady of "Come Back, Little Sheba" and "The Respectful Prostitute" plays a stellar role as does Mary Buckner of "A Phoenix Too Frequent." Elizabeth Stevens, star of "Madwoman of Chaillot" and "Blithe Spirit," is featured in

TRAVELING NEWSPAPERMAN MEETS PARENTS OF CARMEL WOMAN AT PARIS DINNER

Carmel figured prominently in the conversation at a recent dinner party in Paris. The discussion was between the parents of Janine Johnston of Carmel and Dr. Franco Nacci, an Italian newspaperman who had recently visited Janine and her husband Pete.

Some time ago, Nacci came through Carmel on the last leg of his around-the-world trip in a Fiat automobile. As he was talking to Andy Del Monte, Carmel's traffic officer, on Ocean avenue, Pete passed by and recognized Nacci. It turned out they had met in Paris during the first Big Four conference.

At that time Pete and Janine were living in an apartment in Paris which they rented from an Italian artist. Nacci, who was reporting the conference for an Italian paper, visited the artist and got to know the Johnstons.

In Carmel, Nacci visited at the Johnston home for a short while and promised to contact Mrs. Johnston's parents when he got to Paris.

The other day they received a letter from him telling them of his pleasant visit with her parents.

CARMEL COUPLES ENJOY PASADENA TRIP DESPITE ROSE BOWL GAME RESULT

One Carmel foursome partially erased the sting of the Stanford defeat in the Rose Bowl by going to Las Vegas and refusing to brood about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morehouse drove down the Sunday before the game. They spent Monday leisurely looking about the town and so were feeling fit to witness the West's triumph. On game day they parked their car early in the day at the Rose Bowl near the parking lot exit.

After they witnessed Stanford come apart at the seams in the last half, they met (by pre-arrangement) Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nielsen, and the four made a quick retreat from Pasadena.

The next night they arrived in Las Vegas and spent the rest of the week there enjoying themselves in the thin, crisp desert air. When they arrived back in Carmel last weekend, the blow of the previous Black Tuesday had been dulled by the fine time they had had in the interval.

SERRA MOTHERS' CLUB MEETING

The Serra Mothers' Club started the new year with a sizeable attendance at the first meeting. Mrs. Shelburn Robison presided, assisted by Mrs. Paul Masuen, secretary, and Mrs. William McCormick pinch-hitting for Mrs. Frank Andrews as treasurer.

With the library for the school making good headway as the project of the year, the Club was asked by Monsignor O'Connel to combine with the Men's Club in the setting up of a drama and choral group, using the Newman Club as a nucleus. General Geo. D. Wahl and Mrs. Geo. Macbeth will head this undertaking and they called the first meeting last night, January 10. Newman Club members were notified.

The tenth anniversary of the founding of the Mothers' Club will be celebrated on February 7 with a luncheon. Mrs. West Whittaker is in charge and will be assisted by Mesdames Anna Lee Jepson, Thomas Branson, and Frederick Cloud.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA TEA

Mrs. Murray Mathews will hostess a Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumni tea on January 19 at her Del Monte Fairways home, 55 Castro road. Assisting her will be Mrs. Paul Hawley and Mrs. Stanley Simonson of Pebble Beach, and Mrs. C. A. Nedderson of Carmel. Guests may look forward to a showing by Mrs. Eulalia Stauffer of her nationally famed collection of leprechauns.

-- c.a.w.

Mrs. Stauffer, a Kappa alumna of the University of Utah, has made a hobby of these ceramics for a number of years and they have been displayed locally on several other occasions. Kappa newcomers to the Peninsula are invited to contact Mrs. Nedderson at 8-0089.

carmel library notes

New fiction at Harrison Memorial Library includes the Literary Guild selection for January, The Dark Moment, by Ann Bridge. For mystery aficionados, there is a new book by local author Howard Rigsby, Kill and Tell, and Edmund Crispin's, The Long Divorce.

The non-fiction shelf offers a wide choice this week, ranging from The Indigo Bunting, a memoir of Edna St. Vincent Millay by Vincent Sheean, to Alone He Went by Anthony Richardson. The latter is one of the most exciting escape stories of the last war, being the story of Basil Embry's adventures as a British airman in Occupied France. Included also are Master Plan, U.S.A. by John Fischer, the author of Why They Behave Like Russians, a notably unhysterical study. His current book deals with American foreign policy and the men who make it. There is also a new volume of the Letters of Gustave Flaubert, as well as five plays by Henry de Montherlant, the contemporary French playwright.

Miss Niles would like to remind parents about the special shelf of books and pamphlets gathered by the P.T.A.'s of Woods and Sunset schools which deal with various parent problems. Additions are made periodically to this collection.

Last night the employees of the Carmel Post Office and their wives and/or their husbands gathered at the Mission Inn for the annual dinner party. The party is largely sponsored by Carmel businessmen who donate money in appreciation of the work done by the post office personnel.

HEARING ON TV CABLES PLANNED FOR FEBRUARY

At the February 6th council meeting a hearing will be held for those opposed to granting a franchise for television cables. The Alarm Corporation has requested permission to install cables to bring TV signals into Carmel homes.

J. H. Henderson, president of the company, said the use of the cables would allow Carmel to receive signals which are received and transmitted from the large installation in Pebble Beach. In answer to Councilman Donald Craig's question, Henderson said the use of cables "would tend to keep the unsightly aerials from being erected."

Henderson added, "Just as the Model T took the family out of the home, our service will bring it back into the home."

SUCH ACCURACY

It was once reported that an ash tray for President Truman's use in his personal plane cost $18,000. An investigation revealed that the President has a $1.00 ash tray, also that he doesn't smoke. Aside from that, we assume the report was correct.

It's Slim's
For An "Honest" Meal

Most people thought Slim Benson would probably go broke when he first started his system of letting customers figure out their own checks over at his big diner on the highway.

Slim trusts them to pay for as much as they eat—you simply tell Sally, his cashier, the amount of your bill. It works, too. Take the other day when Buck Harris told Sally his bill was 35¢.

Now I was right there with Buck and I knew all he had was coffee and pie which comes to a quarter. "How come thirty-five cents?" I asked Buck. "Had an extra cup of java the other day, Joe, and forgot all about it—til now," he says.

From where I sit, most people are basically honest—and that goes for their opinions, too, even though they may be different than our own. I like a glass of beer with my dinner; you may prefer something else... but we all ought to be allowed to "figure it out" ourselves.

Joe Marsh

Next, Peter Hay, genial pro at Pebble Beach, greets Johnny Weismuller as he arrives to practice for the tournament. Weismuller, a regular in the annual event, is one of the

Unusual headgear has become a tradition of the tournament. Smith is the newly-elected president of the P.G.A. PEBBLE BEACH NOTES

This will be a gay and exciting weekend at Pebble Beach since Bing Crosby's Pro-Amateur Championship will be played over three of Del Monte's great golf courses today, tomorrow, and Sunday.

Many Pebble Beach residents will have house parties over the weekend and many more have planned cocktail and dinner affairs for the many visitors who will travel to Pebble Beach for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osborne (Mary Morse) will have Mr. and Mrs. John Beverly Nickel of Los Banos as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Taylor Pillsbury have planned an open house today to honor their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Winston C. Black of Atherton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton will host a large dinner party Saturday night for a group of the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Geisen have extended invitations for a cocktail party Saturday to honor Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Butts, Jr. of Wichita, Kansas.

Up from their home in La Jolla will be Mr. and Mrs.

Kenneth S. Walker (Nancy Morse) to spend the weekend with her father, Samuel F. B. Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Work will have as their guests Mrs. Dorothy Earle of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. James Bodrero of San Francisco, and Mrs. Church Judge of Pasadena.

Already registered at Del Monte Lodge are Mr. and Mrs. James B. French, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lowery, and Mr. and Mrs. Reeder Butterfield of San Francisco. French and Lowery, among California's leading amateurs, will play in Bing's tournament this week.

NATION'S SAVINGS ARE A CHECK ON INFLATION

The Wall Street Journal reports that a major factor in restraining runaway inflation is the remarkable rate at which the American people are saving their money. For the third quarter of 1951, for example, savings were accumulating at a rate of nearly $22 billion annually. This compared with an annual rate of less than $5 billion in the same quarter of 1950.

The fact that there has been no serious shortage of consumer goods has encouraged many people to adopt a watchful waiting attitude. This contrasts with the feverish spending of 1950 and early 1951 when it appeared that many goods would be in short supply.

Even though economists look for some further price increases, the Journal points out that many persons have apparently decided to save rather than spend regardless of the future price trend. This self restraint is hardly less important to a stable economy than the high level of civilian of civilian goods production. Not only that, but accumulated surplus funds will be available to sustain the economy when military production slackens off.

WHO IS IT?

(POLAROID One-Minute Photograph)

A pleasant, friendly woman, with the clear speech and direct manner of the middle west has come to the Peninsula to live. She is, this time, as often in her life, entering a community to fill one of its needs.

When the Community Chest, helped by the American Women's Voluntary Services, decided upon a visiting nurse agency, the problem of filling the position of organizational nurse was a difficult one. The requirements for such a job are complex; the nurse must be an administrator, a psychologist, and have considerable talent at public relations. Since this is a newly conceived program on the Peninsula, in this instance she had also to be a pioneer.

Miss B. Olive Hart who has come to fill the position, seems a choice that could not be improved upon. Her experience is vast and rich in public health work. Her attitude toward her work is broad and enlightened. At the time this post was offered to her, she was on vacation from the considerable job of having established a public health service for Guam, the American dependency which enjoyed civil government for the first time in 1949.

With a nucleus of twenty native Guamanian nurses, trained under the Navy at the time Guam was administered through the Navy Department, Miss Hart established Public Health Centers in 14 villages. From these supplies and advice given to the islanders, with stress on preventive medicine. As T.B. was the island's greatest health problem (in part due to its privations as a Japanese held territory) Miss Hart was well chosen for the job. Her experience in the three major diseases under public health, tuberculosis, polio, and venereal disease, is extensive.

Born in Decatur, Illinois, on a typical crop-raising mid-west farm, her first crusade was an intro-mural one....convincing her family that she really did want to be a nurse. It was an idea that fond parents looked on as unsound at best. After graduating from high school, Miss Hart taught for two years in a country school....bidding her time, and keeping her eye on nursing school bulletins. On a fine day, along came one mentioning Walter Reed Hospital, in Washington, which was the army school for nurses at the time. A thousand miles, and

SAN CARLOS AT SIXTH REPAIRS

The sidewalk at the corner of San Carlos and Sixth was, last weekend, in an uproar, as the Carmel street department repaired damage done by tree roots.

Pedestrians had a choice of going up and over, or around. As nearly as The Spectator could determine, the arounders outnumbered the overers.

RECORD BOWL GAME

With all the talk about throwing out the bowl games we find that the Rose Bowl this year will probably gross a cool million dollars. Biggest football gate in history. With that kind of money rolling into the tills our guess is that a game will be played in Pasadena each year for some years to come.

The big increase in the income from the game will be derived from the $400,000 which will be paid for the television rights. This, added to the $555,000 which the 100,000 fans will pay to see the game, plus the miscellaneous revenues, will push the take past the million mark. Net receipts are expected to hit $750,000. That should be enough to still the anti-bowl clamor. Call it "hush money" if you will.

DOUGLAS SCHOOL REOPENS AFTER HOLIDAY VACATION

Classes reconvened at the Douglas School, Pebble Beach, with faculty and students reporting a merry holiday season.

Cynthia Marks returned via Clipper from Honolulu laden with two huge boxes of sprays of green and brown orchids for the staff. Patsy Pell also flew from Hawaii, where she spent the holidays at home with her parents, the James A. Pells of Honolulu. Gwendy Guiberson vacationed with her parents, the Gordon G. Guibersons of San Francisco, and her sister, Gigi, at the Beverly Hills Hotel in Beverly Hills and in La Jolla. Clive Martin, son of the C. Standee Martins of Long Beach, feels like a commuter, dividing his holiday time between Long Beach and the family's new home in Carmel Woods.

Mrs. Grace P. Douglas, director of the school, was in Los Angeles for the holiday season and chatted with many old friends at the open houses of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Havenstrite and Dr. and Mrs. Cameron Hall of West Los Angeles, as well as those of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brawner, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newton, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newell of Pasadena.

Douglas graduates of last year, Mrs. Douglas is pleased to learn, are making straight B's as college freshmen. Pat Gillies, daughter of the B. A. Gillies of San Diego, who is at Stanford, was saying hello to friends on the Peninsula last week. Ann Richards, daughter of Mr. Addison Richards of the James M. R. Glasers of Pebble Beach, was home for the holidays from Bennett Jr. College in New York.

Major Jack Cowan found just getting around Texas consumed so much of his holiday time little remained for visiting relatives and friends in Tennessee and New Orleans. Mrs. Adelaide Myerick enjoyed Christmas with her sister in Long Beach. Marilyn von Laass, with her husband Orvar, Swedish section of the Army School of Languages, were guests of her parents in San Mateo. Mrs.

Vanneda Bailey spent a delightful Christmas at Del Monte Lodge.

Mrs. Sylvia Stone had the exciting pleasure of having her son fly his own plane to visit her. The remainder of her holidays were passed in Modesto. Leatrice Kodrebski, and her husband Janusz, Polish section of the Army Language School, journeyed to Texas to holiday with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shackett of the Douglas Ranch were in Albuquerque for the Christmas season.

MRS. LOTTIE OGDEN

The widow of the late E. Martin Ogden, who died here about five years ago, Mrs. Ogden has been spending the winters in Carmel and the summers in Connecticut.

Mrs. Ogden leaves four daughters and four sons, including Muriel Ogden of Carmel. The daughters include Mrs. Edward Rice of Raleigh, N.C., Miss Vivian Ogden, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Harold Dellert, and Mrs. Jack Guinan, and sons Franklin, Quentin, and Edmund, all of Hartford, Conn.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Dorney and Farlinger Funeral Home.

WHO IS IT? (cont'd.)

three years later Miss Hart had added an R.N. to her name, and the distinctive cap and pin of Walter Read Hospital to her wardrobe.

Her first post, after graduating, was at Yale University where she landed with aerial grace at the top of the nursing ladder as head nurse. It was during her year here that she first became interested in public health nursing, with its strong emphasis on the prevention of disease and sickness.

With her eye on a B.A., Miss Hart switched to the Psychiatric Institute in New York, an institute that numbered among its virtues a proximity to Columbia Teachers' college. Four years later Miss Hart had her B.A.

Her first job as a public health nurse was, apparently, all she had hoped, since she stayed for ten years in it...at Westchester County, New York. Varied experience and knowledge followed, in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, and Herman Keeler Hospital in Detroit. She offered emergency service during the polio epidemic of 1948 in Los Angeles, when there were, in the L.A. County Hospital, 50 respirator cases.

She gained understanding of chest surgery next, as assistant head nurse at Alameda, and then joined the San Francisco Public Health Department. She had been there a year when she was asked to make the trip to Guam.

At the time A.W.V.S. and Community Chest snatched her, she was on a vacation from Guam, and thinking of asking for a leave of absence to complete work on her master's degree at Columbia Teachers' College. When she accepted the A.W.V.S. job, she agreed to bring to the Peninsula the experience and education of many institutions, and the exceptionally rich abilities of a person who is devoted to her career and dedicated to service. If you see her in her blue striped dress, with her happy, friendly, blue eyes, bid her welcome. She's here to do us nothing but good.

(The Monterey Peninsula Visiting Nurse Association will offer two major services, visiting homes where medical help within the province of nursing is needed, and bedside care. The latter will be done only under a doctor's supervision. Charges for services (which will go into financing the program) will range from the normal nursing fee to gratis, depending upon the financial condition of the recipient. Emphasis will be placed on education and the prevention of disease, as well as the curing of it. Headquarters are in

PROFIT SHARING CARMEL WORK PLAN

A new profit sharing plan has got under way at the Carmel Work Center. Application for incorporation papers were filed this week. Artists, employees, and craftsmen will now participate in a general sharing of the gains of the enterprise. Its former plan had the center operating as an agent and the artists receiving their proceeds from the sale of their own works. About 50 persons will be included.

The officers will be: Mrs. Mrs. Leora Aydelott, President, in charge of purchasing and the retail shops; Mrs. Stuart I. Weill, Vice-president, in charge of the Pebble Beach Art Gallery; Mr. E. D. Boyce, Secretary-Treasurer, and Mr. George Beeman, Chairman of the Board.

Present indications are that the Work Center will be on a profitable operating basis within six months to a year. It is planned to set aside fifty per cent of the profit for distribution, 25% to go to the artists and craftsmen, and 25% to employees. Each artist's or craftsman's share will be dependent on the amount of his work purchased by the center. The remaining 50% of the profit would remain in the business as working capital.
